

Lyndonville

The next meeting of the girls' industrial class was held in the school kitchen at Lyndon Institute, Monday evening, October 30 at 8 o'clock. There was a demonstration of the making of fancy candles by Miss Enos.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Doby of Hyde Park, Mass., were recent visitors to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dodge.

James Webber has bought the Charles Lee place on Charles street.

Mr. Giles and Mr. Maynard of Boston were in town Wednesday.

The Racket club held its monthly meeting at Catherine Emery's house Saturday evening, October 28, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Hall announces the engagement of her daughter, Alice M., of South Boston, Mass., formerly of Lyndonville, to Kenneth E. Brewer of South Boston, formerly of Victoria, B. C. The wedding will take place in St. Augustine's Catholic church on November 6. After a wedding tour to Chicago, New York and Athol, Mass., the couple will visit with the bride's mother, 21 Thomas Park, South Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George LaPoint of Laconia, N. H. were in town last week visiting for a few days.

Kenneth Jenne and Clinton Adams have gone to work in the railroad shops.

William Pease of Coaticook is here in town for a few days visiting his brother, Raymond Pease.

June Trefren returned home Thursday night after a few days' visit in Wentworth, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Colby and son, Earl, were visitors of Frank Mills this week.

Ira Davis and Joseph Neagle and wife recently visited Mrs. George Clapp of Sheffield.

E. I. Forbes came Friday morning to take possession of the Charles Fisher place on Charles street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Burpee visited his aunt, Mrs. Elsie Coe, last week. Mrs. Coe is in very poor health.

Miss Fannie Fletcher of Proctorville and Miss Evelyn Lease of Montpelier, members of the Vermont Library commission, were in town the first of the week.

The republican town committee held a meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 26, at 8 o'clock in Cable's hall. Howard Elliott of Barnet has been in town visiting a few days.

Prof. E. W. Bradley and the junior class of the Concord high school were here the first of the week visiting the Vall Agricultural school.

Roland Sidney has finished work in Barre and returned home.

The Halloween dance held in Music hall Friday evening was well attended and money was cleared for the Magazine Fund of the village library.

Frank Whitney was sick with the grip this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Legendre went to Lanesboro, Vt., visiting, Sunday.

Miss Minnie Strong of Bridgeport, Conn., is here taking care of her sister, Mrs. Perley Aldrich, who is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pease of Coaticook, P. Q., have been visiting for a few days with friends and relatives, and returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wood and daughter, Eva, left Saturday afternoon for Manchester and from there they will go to West Palm Beach to spend the winter months.

Miss Hazel Hoyt was in town Saturday on business.

Charles Christopher and Robert Dorion were in St. Johnsbury Friday on business.

George Christopher went to Woodsville Sunday to visit his brother.

Charles Spaulding of Hollis, N. H., has been in town visiting friends.

Misses Marjorie Albee and Florence Hatch and Arlene Albee were in St. Johnsbury, Saturday.

Peter, Neagle from St. Johnsbury was in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Margaret McCann returned home from St. Johnsbury Friday after a few days' visit.

Mrs. Percy Spencer and Mrs. L. Dana were visiting in St. Johnsbury, Friday.

Phineas Burns and Bert Beattie have gone to Boston to work on the Boston and Portland division of the Boston & Maine.

Harry Munsey returned home Saturday from St. Johnsbury where he has been working in the bowling alley.

Mrs. Ed Brown, who has been in Boston for two weeks, returned this week.

Mrs. John Dufore is going back to housekeeping in her former tenement recently occupied by W. L. Gray.

Jack Adams and Luke Farrar were in Barnet last Thursday night to attend the district meeting of the Odd Fellows.

Mrs. George Wheeler was in Barnet Friday visiting Mrs. R. H. Hazelton.

J. E. Tanguay and wife are in Lawrence, Mass., for a few days.

Mrs. Dr. A. O. Cheney is not as well at this writing.

Miss Beta Bola was here over Sunday visiting W. S. Wright.

James Welcher from Worcester, Mass., is here visiting his brother.

Miss Charlotte McFarland of West Burke was in town Saturday, visiting.

Lyndon Institute Notes.

Miss Hunter, stenographer in the office of the agricultural department and Miss Price took Miss Hunter's place in the Institute office.

Misses Ruth Houghton and Mildred Smith went to St. Johnsbury Thursday afternoon.

Maud Menut was absent from school Friday on account of sickness.

Mr. Mathewson read selections from President Hadley's address at Yale college Friday morning. It was very interesting.

John Saunders was absent from school Friday.

Edmund McNally, L. I., '16, was here visiting school last week.

Mona Richardson was here at school visiting the first of the week.

The noon hour for those who take their dinner at the Institute is taken up by some of the boys who practice at boxing. It gets very interesting and exciting.

GROTON.

(Mrs. G. H. Mills, Correspondent.)

Ed. Emery has moved from Eliza Dunn's house to the tenement house of James Frost, recently vacated by Frank Corruth.

Mrs. N. R. Caldwell left Tuesday morning on a visit with her parents in Middlebury.

Percy Lund and family of Bradford were in town Tuesday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Pillsbury Wednesday.

Miss Emma Jones returned home Monday from her visit with her sister in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Coffrin returned Monday from Northfield, where they visited their son, Clyde, and family.

Walter Whitehill was in Montpelier Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. F. W. Lewis was in Ryegate Thursday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. Adams.

W. W. Crown, who has worked at Bethlehem, N. H., through the summer, is visiting in town.

Mrs. Frank Morrison is on the sick list.

Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Smith have moved here to the house they recently purchased from Maribeth Taylor.

Mr. Smith has resigned as pastor of the Methodist church in Westford.

BABY HAD WHOOPING COUGH.

Mothers who have used Foley's Honey and Tar would not be without it. Mrs. Sam C. Small, Clayton, N. M., writes: "My grandson had whooping cough when he was three months old. We used Foley's Honey and Tar and I believe it saved his life. He is now big and fat. It is a fine thing to have in the house in case of whooping cough, croup, colds, the first Jones help, loosen phlegm, heal inflammation, clear air passages, stop racking coughs.—CHARLES A. SEARLES & Co.

MONROE

(Mabel Frazer, Correspondent.)

About $8 was realized from the sack social at Hotel hall last Wednesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid society meets Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. H. Hosford.

Mrs. Clement Thornton of Grant-ham has been spending several days with Mrs. D. E. Burns.

Mrs. Frank Kelsea of Lisbon visited her aunt, Mrs. Surancy Rice, last week.

The masquerade dance and promenade at Grange hall Friday night was quite well attended. Keyzer's orchestra of Woodsville furnished music.

Mrs. James Moore and Bernice of East Barnet visited Mrs. G. L. Frazer Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Graham of Waltham, Mass., have moved into the Clifford house opposite Lawrence Moore's.

Gilbert Gillman of East Burke spent Thursday and Friday at Oscar Frazer's.

Miss Mildred Blanchard spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kimball at Barnet.

Mrs. Eugene Hinman visited her brother, Karl Maynes and family at East Ryegate last Tuesday.

Miss Mary Fisher was at home from Bath for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Frazer and James spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Moore at East Barnet.

Mrs. Etta Short of Barnet visited at Henry Hinman's part of last week.

Mrs. Mary Buck and daughter, Pauline, of Moretown, Vt., are visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Ada Corcoran and daughter, Lilla of Fitzdale spent Sunday in town.

Miss Gertrude Hunt of Waterford spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Howard Emery.

Edward Champney of Bethlehem spent the week-end at Ralph Harding's.

The Priscilla club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. G. L. Frazer.

William French was at home from Maine a few days recently.

Mrs. Fred Gibson visited Mrs. Moses Weeks in Bath, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Hosford visited her daughter, Mrs. John Colby, at Woodsville, Thursday.

Lawrence Moore is spending a few days hunting in northern New Hampshire.

Mrs. Emma Rines of Apthorp spent a few days recently at Henry Hunt's.

LUNENBURG.

(Mrs. F. F. Balch, Correspondent.)

Mrs. A. J. Newman, who was called to Somerville, Mass., by the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Bennett, has returned home accompanied by her invalid sister, Miss Mauo Bennett, who will spend some time at the Heights House, John Perry, who accompanied Mrs. Newman and Miss Bennett to Lunenburg, has returned to Boston.

Mrs. Nathan Bean, who has been ill with bronchial pneumonia, is convalescing. Dr. Bronson is attending her and her mother, Mrs. Amanda Wentworth, is caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bell are visiting Mrs. Bell's sister, Mrs. Bertha Clay, in Boston.

Mrs. Ann Phelps was the recent guest of St. Johnsbury relatives.

The Upstreamers' class of the M. E. Sunday school held a social gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Simonds last week at which the young men of Mr. Cole's class were guests. Games, music and light refreshments gave a good time to all.

Mrs. Charles Simonds is stopping with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bushrod Smith, while Mr. Simonds is cutting Christmas trees in South Lancaster.

Fred Simonds and Miss Eva Parady of St. Johnsbury were recent guests of Mrs. Sarah Simonds.

Ernest and Harley Silsby were among the Boston excursionists last week. D. D. Snow assisted at M. D. Bowker & Co.'s general store during the absence of Ernest Silsby.

The new concrete sidewalk from the Heights House to the Alden Balch library is completed and will be much appreciated by the citizens. Repairs which are much needed are also being made at the lower end of the village in the bridge and board sidewalks, under the direction of W. R. Bell and his crew, who have worked on the state road this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur White have returned from Bethlehem, where they were employed for the summer. Mr. White is working for H. T. Silsby drawing gravel for the sidewalks.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER

Money Drawer at the Railroad Station Robbed—Personals.

(Edith McLaughlin, Correspondent.)

A daring piece of robbery was performed Saturday evening at the railway station here. The station agent, Mr. Wheeler, went to his supper as usual and when he returned a pane of glass had been removed from the window of the office and the window then raised and what money there was in the drawer taken.

Miss Alice Wilcox of St. Johnsbury gave a very interesting lecture on apple culture last Saturday night after the regular meeting of Wide Awake Grange. A piano solo by Miss Bertha Salzman and a song by the girls were also rendered.

The annual church supper of the First Congregational church will be served Thursday evening, Nov. 2, from 5 until 7 o'clock and the annual parish meeting will be held from 7 till 7:30 and the church and society business meeting and roll call from 7:30 till 8 o'clock, followed by a stereopticon lecture by the Rev. F. B. Richards of St. Johnsbury, his subject being the "Great Lakes."

The Sunday school of the Methodist church will be held at 1:30 hereafter and the preaching service at 2:30, and the evening service will be held at seven o'clock as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gray and family and Miss Stella Allen spent Sunday with relatives in Glover.

Mrs. Wooster Stevens of Walden visited her cousin, Miss Martha Hill, the first of the week.

Frank McColl of Ryegate visited his sister, Mrs. Bert Gardner, on Saturday.

James Learned has vacated his tenement in the Bacon building and at present is making his home with his son, E. G. Learned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Morrell and Miss Violet Canning were called to Charleston Friday night on account of the sudden death of their sister, who was burned to death early that evening by the explosion of a lamp.

Mrs. A. E. Campbell of Andover, Mass., is visiting her niece, Mrs. D. G. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beck of St. Johnsbury were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McLaughlin and family.

Miss Elizabeth Beane, who has been visiting her parents, returned to her work in Marblehead, Mass., last Friday.

Several members of Green Mountain and Wide Awake Granges went to Concord Friday evening in response to an invitation asking them to meet with Concord Grange, No. 408, to observe "Neighbors' Night."

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Farnham and daughters, Dorothy and Lura, and Mrs. Addie Page spent Saturday and Sunday in Charleston, N. H., the guests of Mrs. Page's daughter, Mrs. Fellows, and family.

Mrs. Sancier of Claremont, N. H., visited her daughter, Mrs. E. O. Mongeon, last week. Leo Mongeon, who works in Claremont, also spent a short time at his home here.

District Deputy W. C. Hall, Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. O'Leary and B. A. Farnham went to West Barnet last Tuesday night to attend a meeting of Lake View Grange.

Mrs. Fred Bennett has been quite sick the past week.

Floyd Lee has moved his family into the house he recently purchased of Mrs. E. M. Broome.

Mrs. Mary Flint visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Flint last week.

Mrs. Louise Towle has been in Passumpsic the past week, the guest of her brother, Smith Emerson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Isalah Moore of Littleton, N. H., spent the week-end at W. A. Astle's. Other guests there during the week were Miss Ruby Smith of Colebrook, N. H., Mrs. Clayton Daniels and Ralph Hooker of St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harvey spent Sunday with their parents in Concord.

Mrs. M. H. Spaulding of Haverhill, P. Q., visited her son, R. C. Campbell, and family a few days last week.

NORTH DANVILLE

(Alice P. Massey, Correspondent.)

C. C. Massey has been on the sick list the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Long visited at U. Clifford's, Thursday.

Leslie Laurence of St. Johnsbury visited at Elgin Gates' Sunday.

Shirley Merchant has sold his house.

Mrs. Carl Clifford and daughter of St. Johnsbury visited at William Clement's, Sunday.

Mrs. W. R. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bell and daughter, Miss Nettie Bell, of Lunenburg, were visitors at Homer Stanton's, Sunday.

Pauline Plant is working at Fred Gadapee's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emmons visited Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. John Gabley at Passumpsic, also their daughter, Mrs. Joe Nolan at St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gadapee are rejoicing over a little daughter born Tuesday, Oct. 24. Both mother and little daughter are doing nicely.

Ralph Emmons has finished work for John Gagnon and is going to Lewiston, Me., to work in a shoe factory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Goodwin of Woodsville were at their son, H. M. Goodwin's, Monday to help them move. Mrs. Goodwin went to Woodsville Monday night to stay until she is able to come to St. Johnsbury, where they will make their home.

Mr. Goodwin is to work in the new Hardwick creamery on Railroad street. We shall miss both Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, they have been here about three years and have made many friends.

WELLS RIVER

(Mrs. D. G. Farwell, Correspondent.)

Miss Jennie Grey of Bradford was in town Wednesday to attend the Relief Corps district meeting.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Mrs. George A. Wheeler at the home of Mrs. S. E. Clark Wednesday evening. The party was given by Col. Preston Relief Corps in honor of Mrs. Wheeler's birthday. A dainty gold bracelet was given her in memory of the occasion. Mrs. Wheeler also received a postal card shower and other remembrances. During the evening delightful refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Herbert Crabtree returned Thursday from a business trip to Joliette, P. Q.

David Stanley had a visit from his brother, Gilbert Stanley, of Manchester, N. H., this week.

Mrs. Nelson Bailey attended the conference at Lisbon Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Kate D. Lee was in town Wednesday attending the district meeting.

H. P. Cummings of Ware, Mass., of the Cummings Construction Co., was in town, Wednesday.

Miss Ruth Randall was hostess Wednesday of the Thimble club.

The Relief Corps entertained the North Haverhill and St. Johnsbury Corps here Wednesday at the district meeting. Dinner was served to about 125 people.

J. F. Hale went Friday to Rutland to attend the Vermont Hotelkeepers association meeting and banquet.

"The Chimes of Normandy" was the opening attraction of the Woodsville lecture course, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweetman, who have spent several years in town, returned Wednesday to Superior, Wisconsin.

Frank Bashore and family left town Thursday for a ten days' sojourn in Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. Jerry Sulloway is on the sick list this week.

Miss Ira Robert of Rumney, N. H., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Learned.

Frank Bashore and family left Saturday for a trip to Boston and vicinity.

Miss Maise Rumsey of Montpelier was in town Thursday.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Lindsay Ely was pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Maudie Perry, Friday evening.

Mrs. Frank Rumsey is home from a week's visit to relatives in Fitch Bay, Canada.

MEN FEEL TIRED, TOO.

While much is said about tired women it must be remembered that men also pay the penalty of overwork. When the kidneys are weak, inactive or sluggish, when one feels tired out or miserable, lacks energy and ambition, Foley Kidney Pills are tonic and strengthening. Wm. H. Clark, Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I found no relief from kidney trouble until I discovered Foley Kidney Pills. Now I am in a 1 shape." They act quickly and surely.—CHARLES A. SEARLES & CO.

HIGHEST CASH PRICES PAID FOR

RAW FURS

FOR years, the most successful Trappers and Collectors of Raw Furs in your vicinity have been shipping their entire collections to us. You too, can secure the highest market prices for your skins by sending them here—as New York is now the World's Greatest Raw Fur Market. Write today for our Free price list and shipping tags. We charge no commission.

Ginseng and Golden Seal
We are the largest dealers in Ginseng in the United States and always pay highest prices. Write for price list.

DAVID BLUSTEIN & BRO.
Fastest Growing Raw Fur House in New York
193 West 27th Street, New York

BARNET

(L. R. Peck, Correspondent.)

Charles Clark, D. D., celebrated his 85th birthday Wednesday, October 25. A postcard shower was received from friends.

Howard Elliott has returned from a few days' visit in Lyndonville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gillman and Thomas McCandach were business visitors in St. Johnsbury, Wednesday.

Miss Nellie McCandach is spending a few days in Boston the guest of her brother, Kenneth McCandach.

Mrs. William Higgins has been entertaining two cousins, Miss Marsh O. Perkins of Windsor, and Miss Flora Morgan of Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. Ora Bishop returned to St. Johnsbury Wednesday, after spending a couple of days with her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Hazelton.

The Ladies' society has purchased the outfit of L. E. Gillman which has formerly been used in the banquet hall.

Mrs. Carrie Ladd of Georgia, Vt., was a guest last week at the home of Rev. W. C. Clark.

The district meeting of the I. O. O. F. was held here Thursday evening. The banquet of chicken pies, etc., was served at Walker's Inn to 238.

Miss Margaret Blair was the guest last week of her sister, Mrs. Hall Merrifield.

Thursday evening a surprise party was given in honor of Miss Genesta Lowrey at the home of Miss Harriet Elliott. The company included the Misses Alice Forrest, Laura Dow, Marjorie Clark, Harriet Elliott, Miss Lowrey was presented with a handbag by the friends who gave the party and with a napkin ring by Laura Dow. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by the young ladies.

Mrs. R. H. Hazelton entertained her aunt, Mrs. George G. Wheeler of Lyndonville, Friday.

Have you catarrh? Use Nazol.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

THE DIAMOND BRAND
Ladies! Ask your Druggists for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold wrapper. Take no other. Box of ten. Druggists. Ask for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS for the years known as Best, Safest, Always Reliable SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

We Want To Interest You

in saving money because we know it is to your interest to have a reserve fund.

Our Liberal Interest will increase your dollars.

We invite your account.

4% Interest Paid

WELLS RIVER SAVINGS BANK
WELLS RIVER, VT.

Build Beauty Into Every Room

Specify Cornell-Wood-Board for the walls and ceilings of the new home. Then the entire house will come up to your ideals of beauty, permanence and economy. Let Cornell designers show you just how it can be done.

Cornell-Wood-Board allows any desired effect in paneling; the quality of every board is guaranteed; the cost is surprisingly low.